PRESS RELEASE

TOGETHER IN PRAYER FOR UNITY & PEACE

Incarnation Catholic Church invites the Glendale community and beyond to a candlelight prayer vigil on Saturday, May 22, 2021 at 7PM at its outdoor worship space. Together in Prayer for Unity & Peace follows on the heels of the March 31 gathering That All May Be One: Prayer Vigil for Racial Acceptance in light of the rising violence against Asian & Pacific Islander Americans. "We are all channels of God's peace, to paraphrase St. Francis of Assisi, and our unity in that calling sends us forth to act with justice, to love tenderly, to serve one another, to walk humbly with God (Micah 6:8)," states Fr. Rodel Balagtas, pastor of Incarnation. "We pray for our country's healing and racial harmony for all people."

Speakers for the vigil include Rev. Parker Sandoval, Vice Chancellor, Archdiocese of Los Angeles; Rev. Todd J. Leonard, Senior Pastor, Glendale City Church; Rev. Sherri James, Senior Minister, Understanding Principles for Better Living Church (UP); Kristina Ortega, Incarnation Catholic School Parent and Faculty Member of Flintridge Sacred Heart Academy; Prosy Delacruz, Author, Columnist for Asian Journal; and Ardashes Kassakhian, Councilmember, City of Glendale.

Incarnation will also be participating in the Glendale Peace Walk on Pentecost Sunday, May 23, and event sponsored by Glendale City Church. Incarnation participants will gather on Brand Boulevard at 12:30PM.

Incarnation Catholic Church is located at 1001 North Brand Boulevard (at West Glenoaks) in Glendale 91202. For more information, contact the Parish Center at 818-242-2579 or visit us at:
